The Inter-Island S. N. Co. will run an excursion to the Manchuria on Sunday provided there are enough offerings. The rate will be made cheap enough and the price will include an elegant luncheon. The steamer will go only on condition that there are sufficient tickets sold to meet expenses and for that reason the company must be notified by persons who desire to go.

ON HONEYMOON TRIP.

It is not generally known, even among their fellow passengers of the Manchuria, that Judge Gilbert and his wife are on their honeymoon trip, having been married just two weeks before leaving the Coast. Mrs. Gilbert was a well known figure in New York society. They will sail this morning for the judge's post of duty at Manila, accompanying Governor and Mrs. Smith on the transport Logan, the instructions from Washington, received yesterday by the Governor, authorizing the passage of Judge and Mrs. Gilbert on the government vessel.

BROWN'S MIXED POSITION.

"I am a candidate for the Republican nomination for sheriff of Oahu county," he said, "and I hope to get the nomination that means that the convention votes me to retire to private life and that is the end of it."—Star.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Elks meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Hawaiian Tribe meets this evening at 7:30 o'clock in I. O. O. F. hall.

Part of the baggage of the Manchuria's passengers arrived yesterday.

Superintendent McVeigh will be down from Kalaupapa on Sunday.

John Kea Jr., who went to San Francisco as a strike-breaker, is now a quartermaster on a ferry boat.

Two vags, Choy Yee Ho and Juan Cruz, were given sixty days apiece at the police court session yesterday.

The Symphony Society will have a rehearsal after the meeting this evening. Active members are requested to bring their instruments.

A prayer and praise service will be held every morning in the lecture room of the Central Union church from 9 to 9:30 o'clock. All are cordially invited.

Hurry up. If you want your dog exhibited in the coming bench show get it listed with the secretary today as the time will soon close. Your dog does not require a pedigree.

The "Theosophical Society in America," public meetings every Friday at 7:50 p. m. in rooms 7-8 Progress Block, Fort street. Secret doctrine class every Tuesday evening for members only.

On account of all precinct clubs holding their meetings this evening the meeting of the subscribers to the Commercial Club will be held at 7:30 o'clock in the Hawaii Promotion Committee rooms.

Friends of both parties have been working today to secure a discontinuance of the police court case instituted by Mrs. Harry Mossman against her husband. The case will be called this morning unless the prosecution is dropped.

Frank Pahia, deputy sheriff of Koolau-poko, is seriously ill. Sheriff Brown and others went to see him yesterday. Pahia is a prominent native. He served in past legislatures and was deputy marshal of the kingdom under Marshal Kaulukou in 1886.

Yee Sing, who had been the star witness for the prosecution of Tai Yick, convicted of selling rotten salmon for food, was up himself yesterday on a similar charge and fined $10 and $3.50 costs. It appears that Tai had sold Yee part of his salmon stock, the latter retelling it out in Kakaako. Another charge of retelling unfit food is now laid against Hop Lee, who will be up before the bench this morning.

Wong Pung Ama, a Chinese matron, was arrested yesterday for abusing certain hackmen, fellow countrymen of her own. The arrest was made by one of the Chinese policemen and around the station the impression prevails that Mrs. Wong is slightly demented. When certain hackmen, fellow countrymen of the station she was accompanied by a little girl, her daughter, who clung to her terrified at the sight of the policemen and the other prisoners. Later the little girl was sent home.

SIGN THE ROLL TODAY.

All those eligible for membership in the various Republican precinct clubs who have not as yet signed the roll for their district should do so today, otherwise they will have no vote in the primary election of delegates. It has formerly been the rule that voters could sign the roll up to the very day of the primaries, but this rule has been amended, making today the last date during which the rolls are to be kept open.

RECEPTION TO THE SUPERS.

The reception to be given to Mr. and Mrs. Super by the Y. M. C. A. on next Thursday, August 30th, is invitational. It was thought best to have Mr. Super first meet his board of directors, his committeemen and other workers. In about a month or six weeks, it is proposed to have a large, public reception for Mr. Super, Dr. Hand, the new physical director and the new secretary of the Y. W. C. A.
